Instead of recon calamity opening Spain's eyes to facts rather blinded her just appreciation of polltical cause and effect. Instead of the rust being cleaned off the government machinery, it was painted over. At different periods, between 1809 and 1873, all the colonies sent their deputies to the Spanish Cortes. After the first constitution had dea the death blow to despotism, reactionary Spain expelled all the Colonial deputies ! 1887, and reverted to the path of absolu tiens. The eminent Spanish writer Perez Galdos in bit Epinodios Nacionales shows us what little notion the Spanish people had of the culture of the Cobana at the beginning of the century. The Spanish public entertained vague ideas of an island of negroes, utilized like beastant burden by a few prosperous Peninsular dons, and regarded appeals for liberty of action as positive audacity which ought to be (and were) sternly repressed. THE BHANGHAI INVASION OF TAWIAH SW

BRANCHAL June 18 The Bhanghal team returned yesterday

Though they brought no laurels back with them, they are one and all enthusiastic over the 'rattling good time' they have had, which, of course, we all expected. Nothing could have exceeded the kindness and haspitality of their hosts. The team was divided amongst the various menof-war, Mr Tyrok, the Shanghai osptain, Canin Pianos; very compact, & Octaves; haing installed in the Centurion (dagahip) iron frames. Transposing Planca. from which, admiral of all he surveyed, he Robinson Plano Co. lasued orders by signal round the fleet-to the Shanghai Eleven.

The team dined with the Admiral and the ward-room officers of the Centurion on various evenings, one, however, being devoted to a night ashore at the Weihalwei Olub-the historical home of Admiral Ting. Possibly the overthrow of the local team was begun, and continued in these two pleasant orgies, only to be ended on the tented plain the following day.

The Clicket Ground has been irveverently described as the C.O's backyard-otherthe parade-ground. The cricket portion it could not be covered by the Clutha's main sail, buta good portion of it could. thing that got through the field was a four, by hitting three sixes out of the universe

Batting was pleasant enough; but fielding was nothing more nor less than being under fire, and at times it was doubtful whether one would have to stop one of Nelson's red hot round shot, or the more THOMAS BEECHAM, Bt. both sides So successful has this first vonture been that an annual repetition of it is looked upon as one of the future's certainties. Let us hope that our local team next year may give a better account of themselves.

In tennis the Shanghai team, comprising Mesers Resaton, Lambe, Johnstone and Dr Marshall, were beaten by their adversaries, the exact scores we are unable to obtain. But they were under a great disadvantage in losing the services of Mr N. B Ramsay, who being unwell, was unable to take part in the tournament.

FOOTBALL. Some of the mombers of the team, with footballing proclivities, arranged a game of Association with six on each side. The weather was unfavourable for play, considering the nature of the ground, and the result was four goals to nil against Slang-

DINNER ON THE 'CENTURION.' H.E. Admiral Seymour was present at nearly all the functions, and on the occasion when the visitors were entertained at dinner on the flugship Centurion by Captain Jellicoe. The gallant captain, after the repast, made a very cordial speech, to which Mr Tyack, as captain of the team, replied. Mr E. H Burrows proposed the Navy, to which Admiral Seymour responded, and in doing so proposed 'Shanghai,' which he alluded to in most pleasing and sulogistic terms, and his toast was replied to by Mr Johnstone. It may be mentioned that in his remarks the Admiral hoped the visit of the Shanghai team to Weihaiwei would become an annual function.

LITTLE SHIPS' SMOKER. A 'Little Ships' Smoker,' for so the title on the M.S.S. programme defined it, was given on board H.M.S. Brisk by the officers of the smaller men-of-war comprising the Phonix, Alaerity, Brisk, Fame, Humber, Rattler, Whiting and Linnet, which was a great success, and in which the visitors also took part. Admiral Seymour was also

CAUSES OF THE DEFEAT. The defeat of the Shanghai team, although they could scarcely hope to beat the pick of seventeen ships comprising | geals. the fleet, is attributed to an extent to the ground. The wickets were pitched on an old Chinese parade ground the surface of which was gravel, and the batting was on matting. The fielding consequently proved very tiring. But the captain himself is convinced that if the naval team come to Shanghai it would again beat the local team.

THE CHINESE REGIMENT. The visitors are loud in their praises of the work of the officers of the 1st Chinese Regiment. It is difficult to realiss how. the work is being carried on and the surprising success the hard-working and zealous officers have met with. There are plenty of applicants, but only about one Chinaman out of twenty is accepted and thus an excellent selection is made. The officers are confident in the success of the scheme of making a well-drilled and reliable battalion from the material they have at their command. -- Mercury.

my stomach. I never felt so badly in all my life. When I came down to work this morning I felt so weak I could hardly. work. I went to Miller and McCurdy's true store and they recommended Chainberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diatrhoea Remedy. It worked like magic and one dese fixed me all right. It certainly is the finest thing I ever used for stomach trouble. I shall not be without it in my home hereaufferings of last night again for fifty times and Mann created not a little amusement its price. - G. H. Wilson, Liveryman, Burgettstown, Washington Co., Pa.
